

University Preview Day: Gothic Masterclass

Monday 6 July 2015 • 10am-3.30pm

Department of English Literature,
Whiteknights Campus

This event invites Year 12 students to study English Literature at university for a day.

We will look in detail at the atmospheric short story 'Green Tea', by Joseph Sheridan Le Fanu.

Research-active academics will guide:

- a mini-lecture, exploring Victorian medicine and mysticism;
- seminars, practising close-reading in small groups;
- a workshop, discussing the narrative frame;
- writing practice, planning an essay on Gothic literature.

This event is free of charge.

Places are limited, and will be allocated according to a brief application form.

www.reading.ac.uk/english-literature

Click 'Undergraduate' > 'Information for teachers and advisors'

For further information, or to request an application form, please contact

Ms Katy Green (0118 378 8124)

K.e.s.green@reading.ac.uk