

Effective Altruism

Hilary Greaves, Faculty of Philosophy
University of Oxford

Tuesday 24th January 7.30pm

Wallingford School Library, St George's Rd

Effective Altruism is a growing social movement consisting of individuals who recognise that, as inhabitants and citizens of the affluent West, they have significant opportunities to improve the world through individual and group action. Find out what this means in practice and whether it is relevant to the way you live your life.

Join us at Wallingford School Library, above the Sixth Form Centre, on St George's Road, Wallingford, OX10 8HH. All meetings are FREE and very informal. They are aimed at non-specialists and there is always plenty of time for questions and refreshments. Doors open from 7:00pm.

Supported by

SCIENCE
exchange
WALLINGFORD

Hosted by

